

Montana Flags

Show your Montana pride!

4" x 6" desk $2.50 each

2' x 3' $25.00 each

3' x 5' $37.50 each

Collectors Pin - Montana State Seal
7/8" w x 1/2" h, $3.00

Glacier National Park "Jammer" Bus – Red Yellowstone National Park Bus – Yellow

Metal reproduction 6 1/2" x 2" h – $26.95 (please specify color)

$5.00 from each sale will be placed in a special account for eventual refurbishing of the 1931 Yellowstone Tour Bus donated to the Society in 1984, but currently in storage.

All Aboard for Glacier: The Great Northern Railway and Glacier National Park by Carol Guthrie

Original photographs, posters, menus, and postcards support this fascinating pictorial history of the creation and promotion of the park by Great Northern as railroad barons raced west and competed for precious territory to expand their empires.

96 pages, paper $15.95

Montana's Grandest Historic Hotels and Resorts of the Treasure State of Montana by Stan Cohen

Not too long ago most every town had prominent buildings that served as hotels. Life-style and travel changes through the years doomed most of these hotels and resorts. Sit back and enjoy a trip into the past while reading of these fine historic sites.

198 pages, photos, paper $15.95

Wildflowers of Montana

A tapestry of Montana's most beautiful wildflowers. Included are Poppy, Columbine, Gilia, Shooting Star, Fireflower, Paintbrush, Primrose, Coneflower, Penstemon, Goldeneye, Gaillardia, Flax

3.5 oz, covers 350 sq. ft., $16.95

"Long George" Francis Gentleman Outlaw of Montana by Gary A. Wilson

Written by biographer and historian Gary A. Wilson, "Long George" Francis reveals the legend behind one of the American West's so-called romantic heroes of the cowboy-outlaw period. The events of his dramatic life and death produced an infamous persona undiminished by time.

196 pages, b&w historic photos,
paper $12.95

Symbols of Montana

by Rex C. Myers and
Norma B. Ashby

Symbols illustrate the historic development of Montana. A total of 12 symbols have been adopted that reflect the flavor and variety that is Montana's heritage. First published in 1976, revised and updated in 1989.

32 pages, b&w and color illus.,
paper $3.50

Prairie Nocturne by Ivan Doig

A riveting story set in the 1920's in Montana and New York during the Harlem Renaissance. Prairie Nocturne draws on three characters from Dancing at the Rascal Fair.

384 pages, paper $14.00

Montana Justice Power, Punishment, and the Penitentiary by Keith Edgerton

Edgerton provides a social history of the Montana penitentiary. Although there were changes in the twentieth century, there was also a depressing repetition of corruption, neglect, and underfunding.

200 pages, 20 illus.,
14 charts, notes
paper $22.50

Big Sky Politics Campaigns and Elections in Modern Montana by Jon Bennion

Big Sky Politics lays out each general election for president, governor, U.S. Senate and Congress with well-researched commentary. Photos, graphs and certified election results complete the picture and bring each political contest to life.

270 pages, paper $19.95

Wellington Rankin by Volney Steele

Rankin was a powerful attorney, a champion of the underdog, and a controversial landowner. He served as Montana's state Attorney General, as U.S. Attorney and as head of the Montana Republican Party. Ultimately, he was unable to get elected to the office he coveted most, the U.S. Senate.

232 pages, paper $12.95

A Decent, Orderly Lynching

The Montana Vigilantes and Their Troublesome Legacy
by Frederick Allen

Allen's sharply drawn characters, illustrated by dozens of photographs, are woven into a masterfully written narrative that will change textbook accounts of Montana's early days and challenge our thinking on the essence of justice.

496 pages, cloth $34.95

The Mechanics of Optimism Mining Companies, Technology, and the Hot Spring Gold Rush, Montana Territory, 1864-1868

by Jeffery J. Safford

Safford examines how gold mining ventures were developed and financed during and after the Civil War, and how many were willing to invest large sums in gold mines that promised quick and lucrative returns.

232 pages, b&w photos, maps,
cloth $34.95

Virginia City Montana by Monte Dolack

A poster commissioned by the Montana History Foundation with proceeds to benefit historic preservation efforts in Virginia and Nevada Cities.
print size 22" x 33", $40.00 plus $10.00 shipping

My Hutterite Life by Lisa Marie Stahl

Lisa Marie Stahl, a young Hutterite woman who grew up at the Gildford Colony near Havre Montana, provides a rare public glimpse into the lives of the Hutterite Community. Lisa's On the Colony columns originally appeared in the Great Falls Tribune.

160 pages, paper $11.95

Montana An Uncommon Land by K. Ross Toole

In writing this classic history of his home state, Toole consciously avoided a systematic presentation of chronological facts. Instead, he wrote a series of roughly chronological essays pointing up the themes that course through the years. The result is a sharply drawn portrait of Montana by one who knew how to interpret the remote and recent past and how to write with great effect.

278 pages, paper $17.95